WINEGECARDUI

Cairo, Ky., Sept. 6, 1899. I take pleasure in writing a few lines in praise of your wonderful medicine, Wine of Cardui. It is the best medicine I ever heard of. I am thirty-six years old and have been sick all my life. I had a dozen doctors, but none of them did me any good. I have taken one bottle of Wine of Cardui and will take another with Black-Draught. I have been married six years and have a baby five years old. I had womb and kidney trouble. My monthly period was so bad that sometimes it came twice a month. I was too sick to do work for a family of three. I was in bed when I got the bottle of Wine of Cardui. Now I am up and can do most of my work. When I was sick I could not sleep at night. I sleep well at night now. A friend of mine advised me to use Black-Mrs. ETTA KILLMAN. Draught with Wine of Cardui.

Another carload of lumber was sent out from Reed's mill this week.

The old friends and schoolmates of Miss Nellie M. Potter will be interested in the following extract from a letter received here from her recently.

It was dated July 29th: "I am at present in France. That sounds nicer than it is in reality, for of all the hot weather! The flies! The gnats! And with all not a single screen! But then, it's classic, and that ought to make amends, but unfortunately I'm not appreciative enough to enjoy discomfort. However, there are some days that seem almost civilized and then I do enjoy things. I am in Saint Quentin, an interesting old town not far from Paris, but far enough for the tide of foreigners not to reach it. am the only American here, so I have a fine opportunity of observing French life untainted, in the cosmopolitan sense of the word. I am with very kind French people and am studying violin and brushing up in French. I August and then go to Paris. I sail for home and work August 25th from Antwerp, Belgium, to New York on the Westerland. I came over on the same ship." THE PEOPLE WHO HANDLE EVERYTHING

W. T. Timmons, of Waxahatchie, Tex., says his rheumatism was so bad that he was confined to his bed for months. Physicians advised Hot Springs, Ark., and Mineral Wells, Texas, at which places he spent seven weeks in vain, with knees so badly swollen that his tortures were beyond endurance. P. P. made the cure, and proved itself, as in thousands of other cases, the best blood purifier in the world, and superior to all Sarsa-parillas and the so-called Rheumatic Springs.

M. F. Ballantyne, of Ballantyne & McDonough's Iron Foundry, Savannah, Ga., says that he has suffered for years from Rheumatism, and could get no relief from any source but P. P. P., which cured him entirely. He extols the properties of P. P. D. on every occasion. P. P. P. on every occasion.

P. P. is sold by all druggists. $1 a bottle; six bottles, $5.
